Unoccupied property

SECTION 3 EXEMPTIONS

Death of registered owner

3.1 A vacancy tax is not payable under this by-law for a parcel of residential property if the residential property was unoccupied for more than six months during the vacancy reference period because of the death of the registered owner of the residential property in the applicable vacancy reference period, and this exemption also applies for the following vacancy reference period.

Property undergoing redevelopment or major renovations

3.2 A vacancy tax is not payable under this by-law for a parcel of residential property if the residential property was unoccupied for more than six months during the vacancy reference period in order to do one or more of the following:

- (a) redevelop or safely carry out major renovations to the property:
  - i. for which permits have been issued by the City, and
  - ii. which, in the opinion of the Chief Building Official, are being carried out diligently and without unnecessary delay, or;
- (b) carry out either redevelopment or initial development of residential property that is unimproved with any dwelling units, or the rehabilitation and conservation of heritage property:

- i. for which a complete rezoning enquiry or application, development permit application or heritage alteration permit application has been submitted by or on behalf of the registered owner and is under review by the City, and
  - ii. which, in the opinion of the Director of Development Services, is being diligently pursued and without unnecessary delay, or;
- (c) carry out either redevelopment or initial development of a parcel of residential property which is unimproved with any dwelling units and is part of a phased development which either:
  - i. has not been rezoned, where a complete rezoning enquiry or rezoning application for at least one of the parcels of residential property which comprise the phased development has been submitted by or on behalf of the registered owner and is under review by the City during the vacancy reference period, or
  - ii. has been rezoned, where either:
    - (A) a complete development permit application has been submitted for at least one parcel of residential property which is part of the phased development and is under review by the City during the vacancy reference period; or
    - (B) a development permit has been issued by the City for at least one parcel of residential property which is part of the phased development and work under the development permit is, in the opinion of the Director of Development Services, being diligently pursued and without unnecessary delay.

Property of owner in care

3.3 A vacancy tax is not payable under this By-law for a parcel of residential property if the residential property was unoccupied for more than six months during the vacancy reference period because all occupiers who were previously occupying the residential property as a principal residence or all tenants or subtenants who were previously occupying the residential property for residential purposes are residing in a hospital, long term or supportive care facility, except that this exemption shall not be allowed for more than two consecutive vacancy reference periods.

Rental restriction or prohibition

3.4 A vacancy tax is not payable under this by-law for a parcel of residential property if the residential property was unoccupied for more than six months during the vacancy reference period because:

- (a) the residential property is a strata unit in a strata development; and
- (b) prior to November 16, 2016, the by-laws of the strata either:

- (i) prohibited rentals altogether, or
- (ii) restricted the number of strata units that could be rented and the maximum number of permitted strata rentals for the strata development has already been reached, provided that:
  - (A) the number of permitted strata rentals has not been decreased on or after November 16, 2016, and
  - (B) the registered owner is able to submit evidence that they were unable to rent the residential property during the vacancy reference period due to this restriction.

Transfer of property

3.5 A vacancy tax is not payable under this by-law for a parcel of residential property if the transfer of 100 percent of the legal interest in the property was registered in the Land Title Office and either the property transfer tax was paid or the registered owner qualified for an allowable property transfer tax exemption.

Occupancy for full-time employment

3.6 A vacancy tax is not payable under this by-law for a parcel of residential property if the principal residence of the registered owner during the vacancy reference period was outside of Greater Vancouver, but the residential property was occupied by the registered owner for residential purposes for a minimum aggregate of six months during the vacancy reference period because the registered owner was employed full-time and the nature of that employment required their physical presence in Greater Vancouver.

Court order

3.7 A vacancy tax is not payable under this by-law for a parcel of residential property if the residential property was unoccupied for more than six months during the vacancy reference period solely because a court order, court proceedings or order of a governmental authority prohibits its occupancy, provided that the court proceedings or any conditions or requirements set out in any court order or order of a governmental authority are being diligently pursued without unnecessary delay by the registered owner and within any stated timelines.

Limited use residential property

3.8 A vacancy tax is not payable under this by-law for a parcel of residential property if the residential property was unoccupied for more than six months during the vacancy reference period because:

- (a) the lawful use of the property is limited to vehicle parking; or
- (b) as a result of the size, shape or other inherent limitation of the parcel, a residential building cannot be constructed on the parcel.
